Qualifikationsziele	The aim of this course is to get an overview of strategic issues that affect international management, especially focusing on the involvement of SMEs in such processes. Strategic management is imperative if international organisations wish to maintain success and hence it is of great significance to consider alternative approaches to strategy formulation in complex environments, to examine the options and challenges that the international SME is confronted with, and to design an appropriate strategy for the implementation of the strategy. The course will be supported by lectures/workshops which will entail analyses of case studies and discussions.
Lehrinhalte	Topics to be discussed include: Introducing and understanding strategy and strategic development      Studying the environment of SMEs and the international perspective      Strategic capability of SMEs in the international scene      Directions and methods of development      Culture and international management      Ethics and social responsibility      Communication issues for SMEs taking international aspects into consideration
